Happy Holidays from RGNA

This is the last newsletter of the year and the RGNA Board wants express our appreciation to all of our families. A warm RGNA welcome to the new families that joined our neighborhood in 2017.

We continued to build relationships this year through our annual events: the Annual RGNA meeting, Summer Block Party and the Progressive Dinner.

We also started to beautify our neighborhood, starting with refurbishing the marker on the corner of 73rd and Oak.

RGNA wishes you and your family a happy holiday season. May the rest of your year be filled with good food, good memories and good neighbors!

Area Events

88th Annual Plaza Lights

November 23

Beginning Thanksgiving night, miles and miles of holiday lights adorn the Plaza for seven weeks each winter.

Whoville Holidays at City Market

December 9-17

Dress up as a Whoville character and visit Cindy Lou Who in their home located in the center of City Market Square. Bring your camera for a holiday photo.

Zoo Year's Eve

December 31

Watch the ball drop to our sea lions at noon during Zoo Year's Eve. Penguins, polar bears, and many more animals will enjoy festive enrichment items.

FREE TREES!

In partnership with KC Parks and Recreation Department, Heartland Tree Alliance volunteers are planting FREE trees in your neighborhood. They provide the tree, mulch, watering bag, and we will even plant the tree for you (total value of $400+)! They only ask that you water the tree weekly for its first two years!

If you are interested, reserve your tree right away at: <https://bridgingthegap.org/heartland-tree-alliance/reesforkemo/>
