75th Street Water Main Replacement project

We are in the home stretch of the 75th Street Water Main Replacement project. The last water main is in the ground. They expect to wrap up the final completion steps soon.

Public Works will be returning later this spring to resurface portions of 75th St. To learn more about the Street Preservation program and view the weekly resurfacing schedule, visit:

www.KCMO.gov/streetpreservation.

Questions for Public Works? Contact the Public Works Public Information Officer, Maggie Green at maggie.green@kcmo.org.

Local Business Reopenings

Betty Rae's Ice Cream is reopened on Wornall under new ownership, but still delicious ice cream!

Bier Station is hoping to move from pop-up openings to being open 7 days a week with indoor/outdoor seating in Mid-April with an all-new interior and huge sliding glass doors to bring the outside inside!
